2020 Estate Planning College

Lauren M. Ahern, Counsel in the firm's Tax, Trusts & Estates Department, will be on the faculty for the "2020 Estate Planning College" live webinar, to be presented by the New Jersey Institute for Continuing Legal Education on Wednesday, April 8, 2020 from 8:30am - 3:30pm at the New Jersey Law Center.

Estate planning has become much more complicated than just writing a will, having a client sign it and filing it away until the client needs it. This intensive program will delve into the critical details of estate planning. Ms. Ahern will present an overview of New Jersey death taxes, with other panelists covering the following topics:

Ms. Ahern focuses her practice in the areas of estate planning and administration, with a focus on high net worth individuals. Her work includes business succession and intergenerational planning, long term care planning, charitable gift planning and planned giving, the drafting of various estate planning documents including wills and trust arrangements, and counsel regarding estate and income tax saving techniques in the estate planning process. In the area of estate administration, Ms. Ahern represents fiduciaries and beneficiaries in probate matters, including the satisfaction of federal and state tax obligations, the preparation of petitions and supporting documents, and the settlement of complex estates via formal and informal methods, including probate litigation involving contested wills and fiduciary accountings.
