

2026 NJSBA Spring Conference

Emily A. Kaller, a partner in the firm's Litigation practice, will be a presenter at the "2026 NJSBA Spring Conference" on Thursday, March 19, 2026, from 8:30am – 4:30pm. The virtual program will be hosted by the New Jersey Institute for Continuing Legal Education (NJICLE).

The program will provide real-world frameworks and proven tactics designed for immediate implementation across a range of topics. Emily will lecture during a segment on business law titled "The Business Breakup - How to Represent Business Partners and Members Who Are No Longer "Closely Held," which will address how lawyers can use their skills as negotiators, litigators and transactions to shepherd clients to a successful business breakup.

Emily's practice focuses on commercial litigation. She has experience in the prosecution and defense of financing, credit and other banking matters, contract disputes including those arising under licensing and asset sale agreements, environmental contamination contribution actions, and complex litigation.

Additional program details and registration on the NJICLE website.

Related Attorneys

A professional headshot of Emily A. Kaller, a woman with dark hair and glasses, wearing a dark top, set against a light, blurred background.

Emily A. Kaller
Partner
732.476.3352
Email