

The Inaugural NJSBA Bankruptcy and Restructuring Forum

Nancy Isaacson, a partner in the firm's Litigation Department, will be a panelist at "The Inaugural NJSBA Bankruptcy and Restructuring Forum," to be presented by the New Jersey Institute for Continuing Legal Education and the New Jersey State Bar Association Bankruptcy Law Section on Thursday, November 18, 2021 from 9:00am - 4:00pm at the New Jersey Law Center.

Discussions, negotiations, and strategies surrounding the intersection of bankruptcy and restructuring have become some of the most important in modern boardrooms. This entirely new Forum is specifically designed to help New Jersey attorneys navigate the most common bankruptcy and restructuring issues they are likely to encounter in practice.

Panelists will provide real world guidance in panels focused on real estate law and bankruptcy, elder law and bankruptcy, and family law and bankruptcy. The program will conclude with a discussion on ethics with Professor Stephen Lubben, the Harvey Washington Wiley Chair in Corporate Governance and Business Ethics at Seton Hall University School of Law.

As a member of the firm's Bankruptcy & Financial Restructuring Practice Group, Ms. Isaacson focuses her practice in bankruptcy and insolvency, with an emphasis on trustee and creditor rights law. She serves as a Chapter 7, Chapter 11 and Chapter 11 Subchapter V Trustee for debtors in federal bankruptcy proceedings and has represented appellants in cases before the Third Circuit Court of Appeals. She has achieved a national profile in her area of practice through her involvement in a number of large bankruptcy matters representing tort claimants and landlords. She is an approved mediator for the U.S. Bankruptcy Court, District of New Jersey.
