

Greenbaum Partner Steven Nudelman Named Outstanding Judge in 12th Annual International Mock Trial Tournament

After serving as a presiding judge for three rounds in the first International Mock Trial (IMT) tournament of the 2025-26 academic year, Greenbaum partner Steven Nudelman received an “Outstanding Judge Award” for his service, with participating students ranked him as one of the top two judges in a field of over 50 volunteer international judges.

The IMT tournament, held on October 3-5, 2025, featured students in grades 8-12 comprising 22 teams from the United States, China, Hong Kong, Korea, and Portugal.

Steve comments: “It is an immense privilege and honor to serve at the IMT Tournament. Witnessing the talent and dedication of these students, especially those connecting virtually from diverse cultures, is rewarding and fun. I also appreciate the opportunity to offer students constructive feedback that may help shape their future careers in trial advocacy.”

Founded by Dr. Iain Lampert and Max Wang, IMT is a 100% free program that fosters trial advocacy skills in an educational and fun setting for middle and high school students worldwide. Steve will preside over the IMT tournament finals on October 9, 2025. He concentrates his practice in construction law and chairs the firm’s Construction Contracting & Risk Management practice.

Related Attorneys

A professional headshot of Steven Nudelman, a man with dark hair, wearing a grey suit jacket, a white shirt, and a pink tie, smiling against a light background.

Steven Nudelman
Partner
732.476.2428
Email