

Legal Trends in Environmental Law

Barbara J. Koonz, a partner in the firm's Environmental Department, will be a panelist for the seminar "Legal Trends in Environmental Law," to be presented at the 2021 Atlantic Builders Convention on Wednesday, October 13, 2021 from 2:00pm - 3:45pm.

Legislation, regulations and court decisions relating to environmental issues continue to modify the legal framework within which real estate is developed. Ms. Koonz will join a panel of environmental attorneys to examine the most recent significant changes and discuss their implications for the future.

Ms. Koonz focuses her practice in the areas of environmental and energy law, with an emphasis on environmental permitting for redevelopment, environmental compliance and renewable energy projects. For over 25 years, she has advised domestic and overseas businesses on environmental remediation, permitting and regulatory compliance issues. She chairs the firm's Energy, Renewable Resources & Sustainable Development Practice Group and counsels private and public entities involved in the fossil fuel, liquefied natural gas (LNG) and renewable energy industries in connection with the acquisition, project management, development and permitting of energy facilities and related infrastructure.

Greenbaum, Rowe, Smith & Davis LLP is a Master Sponsor of the New Jersey Builders Association, which hosts the Atlantic Builders Convention. The firm will be located this year in Booth # 613 on the Harrah's exhibition floor, which will be open on Tuesday, October 12th and Wednesday, October 13th from 10:00 am - 4:00 pm each day.

The Atlantic Builders Convention is the largest regional building industry tradeshow in the Northeast. With state-of-the-art products, innovative services, and educational programs, ABC is also an excellent forum for networking and deal-making for building industry professionals. Additional information and registration on the ABC Convention website.
