

Legal Trends in Land Use Law & Environmental Law

Barbara J. Koonz and Steven G. Mlenak will be presenters for a virtual seminar on "Legal Trends in Land Use Law & Environmental Law," to be presented on Tuesday, September 22, 2020 from 9:00am - 12:00pm by the New Jersey Builders Association (NJBA).

Legislation, regulations and court decisions relating to environmental issues and to the land development review process continue to modify the legal framework within which real estate is developed. This program will examine the most recent significant changes and discuss their implications for the future.

Ms. Koonz will participate in the environmental law panel discussion, which is scheduled for 9:00am - 10:25am. Focusing her practice in the areas of environmental and energy law, with an emphasis on environmental permitting for redevelopment, environmental compliance and renewable energy projects, Ms. Koonz is a partner in the Environmental Department and chairs the firm's Energy, Renewable Resources & Sustainable Development Practice Group.

Mr. Mlenak will participate as a panelist in the land use law discussion, set for 10:35am - 12:00pm. A partner in the firm's Redevelopment & Land Use and Real Estate Departments, Mr. Mlenak concentrates his practice in the areas of redevelopment, land use, zoning, and real estate development. His practice includes a focus in the area of community association law, providing strategic guidance and general counseling to association clients. He is a member of the NJBA's Legislative Committee.
