The program will be presented live at PLI New York, 1177 Avenue of the Americas, and will also be available for online viewing.

This annual two-day course was created as the Milton Friedman Lecture Series over 50 years ago and remains one of PLI's longest running, popular programs. Designed as an in-depth tutorial on drafting and negotiating essential provisions of commercial leases, this year's program will continue the tradition of teaching actual practical skills for attorneys of all levels. The faculty will dissect cases still winding through the court system while providing invaluable perspective drawn from their decades of combined experience. Attendees will gain a better understanding of dispute resolution, liability risk shifting, accounting terms, valuation, and cost allocation from the viewpoints of both landlords and tenants. Further we will provide comprehensive updates on emerging industries, such as cannabis, the ongoing impact of COVID, insurance coverage matters, financing needs, and hot topics in retail.

Mr. Fersko will be a panelist for the following segments on Thursday, February 23:

10:30am: "COVID-19 2023 Fast Forward - Evolution of Tenant Demands and Landlord Responses"

This segment will provide instructions on available landlord enforcement actions and tenant demands such as rent defaults, terminations, and attacks on leases. The agenda will address:

1:15pm: "Commercial Leases: Fundamentals of a Cannabis Lease Transaction"

Mr. Fersko's practice reflects his extensive experience as a commercial real estate and general business lawyer.
