Pathways to Leadership With NJWLA Past Presidents

Jemi Goulian Lucey, a partner in the firm's Litigation Department, will participate in the online event "Pathways to Leadership With NJWLA Past Presidents" on Tuesday, October 19, 2021. The program, hosted by the New Jersey Women Lawyers Association, will be presented virtually on the Zoom platform from 5:00pm - 6:3opm.

Ms. Lucey, Executive Board member and Immediate Past President of NJWLA, will join a panel of NJWLA former Presidents and other prominent women leaders in New Jersey to discuss their personal pathways to leadership and provide insights into their career paths. The program will also explore career development, self-promotion, work-life balance and diversity, equity and inclusion initiatives so we can continue to advance women lawyers to the highest levels of our profession.

Ms. Lucey is a trial attorney who focuses her practice on employment, higher education and professional negligence matters. She represents private and public entities, including institutions of higher learning, in employment discrimination and retaliation actions, professional negligence cases, Title IX claims, and business disputes. She co-chairs the firm's Higher Education Practice Group and is a member of the Employment Law Department.
