

Redevelopment and Related Agreements between Municipalities and Private Parties: An Overview of Public Private Partnerships

Seminar or Event

4.26.22

Event Sponsor: Greenbaum, Rowe, Smith & Davis LLP

Live Webcast

12:00pm - 1:00pm (ET)

Greenbaum, Rowe, Smith & Davis LLP will present the webinar, "Redevelopment and Related Agreements between Municipalities and Private Parties: An Overview of Public Private Partnerships," on Wednesday, April 27, 2022, from 12:00pm - 1:00pm.

The speaker for this program is:

Public private partnerships (PPPs), including the redevelopment process and the agreements that result from PPPs such as Redevelopment Agreements and Financial Agreements, can often be intimidating for governmental agencies, property owners and developers that have never negotiated or executed these types of agreements with a municipality. If the property to be developed qualifies, however, the benefits of entering into a Redevelopment Agreement with a municipality provides distinct advantages over the traditional development process.

This webinar will comprehensively address the benefits, pitfalls, and potential issues related to redevelopment and related agreements, as well as other forms of PPPs.

Topics to be addressed during this complimentary webinar include:

If you were unable to attend, please view the Program Recording.

Related Attorneys

A professional headshot of Sean R. McGowan, a man with a beard and short hair, wearing a dark blue suit jacket over a light blue shirt. The background is a soft, out-of-focus green and white.

Sean R. McGowan
Partner
973.577.1852
Email