

The Value of Authentic Leadership

Jemi Goulian Lucey, a partner in the firm's Litigation, Employment Law and Healthcare Departments, is a featured guest speaker on "The Lawyer's Edge" podcast. Her interview, which focuses on "The Value of Authentic Leadership," begins airing on Tuesday, March 29, 2022.

The Lawyer's Edge helps lawyers and law firms bring in more revenue by improving communication, leadership, and business development skills in attorneys and leadership teams. The primary goal of their coaching and interactive, skills-based programs is to educate and support lawyers so they can drive business results for themselves and their firms and contribute to a positive, growth-oriented culture.

Lawyer's Edge podcasts are broadcast on Apple and Spotify Podcasts and focus on what legal professionals really want from their careers and how law firms can grow and sustain healthy, profitable businesses. They are hosted by Elise Holtzman, founder of The Lawyer's Edge.

Ms. Lucey is a trial attorney who focuses her practice on employment, higher education, and complex litigation matters. She holds numerous leadership positions in legal and business sector organizations and is a member of the firm's Diversity, Equity & Inclusion Leadership Team.

Ms. Lucey's podcast interview can be accessed on The Lawyer's Edge website.

Related Attorneys

