

Will Drafting Fundamentals Post-Pandemic

Lauren M. Ahern, Counsel in the firm's Tax, Trusts & Estates Department, will be on the faculty for a live webinar on "Will Drafting Fundamentals Post-Pandemic," to be presented by the New Jersey Institute for Continuing Legal Education on Monday, February 17, 2025, from 9:00am - 12:35pm.

This fundamental program is designed for general practitioners, new attorneys, and support staff who have little or no experience in will drafting and will provide step-by-step details on the will-drafting process.

Ms. Ahern focuses her practice in the areas of estate planning and administration, with a focus on high-net-worth individuals. Her work includes business succession and intergenerational planning, long term care planning, charitable gift planning and planned giving, the drafting of various estate planning documents including wills and trust arrangements, and counsel regarding estate and income tax saving techniques in the estate planning process. In the area of estate administration, Ms. Ahern represents fiduciaries and beneficiaries in probate matters, including the satisfaction of federal and state tax obligations, the preparation of petitions and supporting documents, and the settlement of complex estates via formal and informal methods, including probate litigation involving contested wills and fiduciary accountings.
