- Represents businesses and individual clients in a diverse range of disputes
- Federal and state court litigation, appeals, and alternative dispute resolution
- Serves as New Jersey local counsel to U.S. and international law firms

Alan is a seasoned litigator who represents clients in large and complex commercial matters. He represents a broad range of business entities and individuals in federal and state court civil litigation and appeals and before arbitration panels.

His diverse experience encompasses corporate and partnership disputes, business torts, securities litigation, product liability matters, trademark and unfair trade practice claims, trade secret litigation, antitrust matters, RICO claims, professional malpractice, employment litigation, land use and redevelopment challenges, and trust and estate litigation.

A key component of Alan's practice is serving as a trusted resource for out-of-state and international firms requiring sophisticated New Jersey local counsel. He also bridges the gap between litigation and settlement through his work as an advocate, mediator and arbitrator.
