

- Provides support in commercial litigation matters, including employment and condominium disputes and public entity liability cases
- Admitted to practice in New Jersey
- Member of New Jersey State and Middlesex County Bar Associations

Cristian assists in the firm's representation of clients in litigation matters, including those related to employment discrimination claims, condominium association disputes, and public entity liability, as well as the arbitration of consumer fraud claims. Her work has included legal research and the drafting of motions and legal memoranda, white papers and client communications. She has also conducted and defended depositions, attended case management conferences, and prepared client representatives for their depositions.

As a summer associate at the firm, Cristian worked closely with partners and other attorneys, gaining hands-on experience in areas of practice including employment, construction, and healthcare law, as well as FINRA arbitration. She analyzed legal frameworks for medical wellness facilities, renewable energy projects, and jurisdictional authority over foreign corporations, and provided support on the preparation of materials for a CLE presentation on legal ethics to in-house counsel.
