

As Director of Accounting, Lisa is responsible for overseeing the infrastructure that keeps the firm's financial operations agile and efficient. Lisa's commitment to the firm is evidenced by her nearly 40-year tenure at Greenbaum in a challenging role that includes interacting on a regular basis with every individual at the firm. She leads our accounting team with a focus on fiscal integrity and process optimization, ensuring that billing and financial reporting are seamless, accurate, and transparent. By maintaining rigorous internal controls and a commitment to operational excellence, she helps the firm deliver maximum value to our clients, providing a stable financial foundation that allows our attorneys to focus entirely on achieving successful outcomes.
