

Tax

Greenbaum's tax attorneys provide sophisticated and strategic legal counsel to business entities and individuals. Our services span the gamut of tax-related issues and are focused on minimizing tax liabilities, ensuring federal and state compliance, and resolving controversies and disputes through proactive guidance and robust representation. We serve as both advisors and advocates to assist our clients in navigating the complexities of tax law to achieve their financial and business goals while mitigating risk. We possess in-depth knowledge of New Jersey's intricate state and local tax (SALT) landscape, including corporate business tax, sales and use tax, gross income tax, and property tax. We guide clients through compliance, audit defense, and strategies to minimize state and local tax burdens. Leveraging a deep understanding of tax law and business sector expertise, our team takes a collaborative and personalized approach to ensure comprehensive tax solutions and achieve favorable outcomes in all tax-related matters.
